Article Seventeen Dispute Resolution

Section 51. Purpose. The purpose of this Article is to prescribe the sole means to present and resolve grievances, complaints, or disputes between or among members, insureds, certificate owners, or beneficiaries, their heirs, administrators, guardians, representatives, successors and assigns, and the Society or its Board of Directors, officers, agents, and employees. Procedures set forth in this Article are meant to provide prompt, fair, and efficient opportunities for dispute resolution, consistent with the fraternal nature of the Society, without delay and expense of formal legal proceedings.

Section 52. Scope. Except as expressly limited herein (see Section 56) this Article applies to all past, current or future benefit certificates, members, insureds, certificate owners, beneficiaries and their heirs, administrators, successors, guardians, representatives, successors and assigns and the Society. It applies to all claims, actions, disputes and grievances of any kind or nature whatsoever. It includes, but is not limited to, claims based on breach of contract, as well as claims based on fraud, misrepresentation, violation of statute, discrimination, denial of civil rights, conspiracy, defamation, and infliction of distress against the Society or its Directors, officers, agents, or employees. To the extent permitted by applicable law, this Article applies to all claims, actions, disputes, and grievances brought by the Society against members, insureds, certificate owners, or beneficiaries and their heirs, administrators, guardians, representatives, successors and assigns.

In the event that a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction deems any party or claim in a dispute not subject to this Article, this Article will remain in full force and effect as to any remaining parties or claims involved in such dispute. This Article does not apply to any claims or disputes relating to interpleader actions to determine proper owner, beneficiary or payee.

Section 53. Dispute Resolution Procedures. No lawsuits or any other actions may be brought for any claims or disputes covered by this Article. All disputes covered by this Article will be resolved in accordance with the following procedures, which will occur in the order given in this Section:

- (a) Appeal. Any dispute covered by this Article must be submitted to the Society's compliance officer at its Home Office at 2021 Mascoutah Avenue, Belleville, IL 62221, telephone number (800) 240-2554, for resolution by the Society's internal review process.
- (b) Mediation. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute through the Society's internal appeal process as described in Paragraph (a), either party may have the matter mediated in accordance with the applicable mediation rules of the American Arbitration Association (or other neutral organization as agreed upon by the parties).

(c) Arbitration. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute through the Society's internal appeals process as described in Paragraph (a) and through mediation as described in Paragraph (b), the matter will be resolved by binding arbitration in accordance with the applicable arbitration rules as prescribed by the American Arbitration Association (or the rules of another neutral organization mutually agreed upon) as applicable to the type of matter in dispute. The arbitration shall be administered by a neutral organization agreed upon by the parties. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding, subject only to the right to appeal such decision as provided in the arbitration rules and applicable laws. The member, insured, certificate owner or beneficiary shall have the right to be represented by legal counsel of his or her choosing at any time at his or her own expense (unless, as provided in Section 56 below, he or she is awarded attorney's fees). If an issue in dispute is subject to law that prohibits parties from agreeing to submit future disputes to binding arbitration, arbitration results shall be nonbinding, unless the parties agree to binding arbitration after the claim or dispute has arisen. The Society will take reasonable measures to assure that the dispute resolution process proceeds promptly.

Section 54. Costs. The administrative costs of any mediation or arbitration (including fees and expenses of mediators and arbitrators, filing fees, reasonable and necessary court reporting fees) will be paid by the Society. Except as awarded under Section 56 of this Article, each party will bear its own attorneys' fees, expert fees, and discovery fees.

Section 55. Joinder of Disputes. The procedures of this Article are designed to afford individual members, benefit certificate owners, beneficiaries and the Society a prompt, fair, and efficient means of resolving individual disputes. Accordingly, no dispute may be brought forward in a representative group or on behalf of or against any "class" of persons, and the disputes of multiple members or benefit certificate owners or beneficiaries (other than immediate family members) may not be joined together for purposes of these procedures without the express written consent of both (i) all members and benefit certificate owners and beneficiaries affected thereby and (ii) the Society. The restriction on joinder of disputes contained in this Section 55 is a condition upon which the agreement to arbitrate contained in this Article depends. Thus, should a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction deem the restriction on joinder of disputes contained in this Section 55 unenforceable or otherwise void, there shall be no agreement to arbitrate.

Section 56. Remedies. This Section applies to any claim or dispute resolved through binding arbitration as provided in Section 53(c) above and to any action in a court of law in the event that a court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction deems any party or claim in a dispute not subject to binding arbitration. Except as expressly limited in this Section, the parties to a dispute may be awarded any and all damages or other relief allowed for the claim in dispute by applicable federal or state law, including attorney's fees and expenses if such attorneys' fees and expenses are deemed appropriate under applicable law. Exemplary or punitive damages may be awarded for claims arising under applicable federal or state statutes to the extent permitted under the applicable statutes or, for claims arising under the common law, exemplary or punitive damages may be awarded but may not exceed three times the amount of compensatory damages.

Section 57. Severability. In the event that any court or arbitrator of competent jurisdiction deems any portion of this Article to be unenforceable or otherwise void under applicable law, the remaining portions of this Article will remain in full force and effect.
